Automation for shutters,
awnings and blinds.

In force since 1 August 2010

Innovate, simplify, distinguish.

High quality motors and automation devices for shutters, awnings and blinds: since 1978 Jolly Motor has been manufacturing high-tech solutions satisfaction. Constantly driven by innovation and highly customer-satisfaction oriented, Jolly Motor has recently decided to take major steps to increase its productive and commercial capacities. Joining the Came Group, in February 2009 Jolly Motor joined the Came Group which has bolstered the company's know-how and boosted its product offer. To date, the company provides the market with complete systems, suited to any needs and applicative field: from residential to commercial, from hospitality operations like hotels, restaurants, bars and clubs to wellness centres. Highly evolved and engineered products born out of careful research on aesthetics and shapes. To make automated devices not just intelligent and functional, but dynamic elements of interior design and decoration. Ready to distinguish itself.

1. GENERAL POINTS

This price list is exclusively intended for direct clients of Jolly Motor S.r.l.; in some cases it may constitute a direct offer by Jolly Motor S.r.l. to third party buyers of said company's products and it cannot in any other way commit Jolly Motor S.r.l. to said third party clients, that is, the end buyers of the products. These general conditions of sale apply to all purchase agreements for materials of Jolly Motor S.r.l., hereinafter called "the company".

2. OFFERS AND ESTIMATES

The company's offers are valid for maximum period of 30 days from the date they are sent.

3. ORDERS

The sales agreement is executed by written confirmation of orders by Jolly Motors S.r.l. or when the company carries out the order. Any orders addressed and signed by Jolly Motor S.r.l. clients constitute firm and irrevocable orders for 30 days from the date they are received by the company. Any changes or additions of single provisions of these general conditions of agreement or of single provisions of the order which was originally addressed by the client, have no validity whatsoever unless approved in writing by the company. For any changes to the order the company reserves the right to cancel both the changes and the original order. The delivery date for the goods mentioned in the orders is always and in any case merely indicative and any delays of said terms may never constitute grounds for demanding compensation or winding up of the agreement. Particularly the company reserves the right to delay delivery times or to cancel the order in the event of: force majeure or events that are beyond the control and will of the company; changes in the Client's legal situation; difficulty in sourcing raw materials and component parts.

4. DELIVERIES AND SHIPMENTS

The goods are delivered at the place where they are produced or at the company's operations facilities. The goods travel at cost and the buyer is fully liable for them, in case the transport goes via a and ex works port pursuant to incoterms 2000. Unless otherwise specified the company decides, on behalf of and on account of the client, on the type of shipment, routes and shipping firms that will be used. The company reserves the right to possibly partially execute or deliver orders, thereby issuing a separate invoice with each delivery: in this case all partial deliveries shall be invoiced autonomously and payment terms shall apply as of the date of each invoice; the client may not therefore defer payment on partial deliveries, to the completion of deliveries of the original order.

5. PRICES AND PRICE LISTS

Prices are for goods supplied at the company's works, VAT excluded, normal packaging included, and shipping costs not included. Any reference to list prices shall mean the latest price list issued by the company, which cancels any previous price lists.

6. PAYMENT

Non-payment within the established terms, shall result in the application of interest pursuant to Legs. Decr. 09/10/2002 n. 231 (as per acceptance of Directive 2000/35/CE of the European Parliament and Council and of the Vienna Convention of 11/04/1980 ratified by the State of Italy with L. 765/1985) and subsequent amendments and upgrades, with no prejudice to any possible greater damage. In case of delayed payment, any losses due to exchange rates shall be owned by the client to the company. The client may not question nor request exceptions from the company, until it has paid for the goods it has purchased. The company reserves the right to clock all shipments in being, and all supply orders in being should there be any problems with the payments, without giving prior notice and without owing any compensation of any kind.

7. GUARANTEE

This CONVENTIONAL GUARANTEE (or warranty) for business dealings or in case of the sale of goods for professional use, is provided in compliance with the provisions set for the Civil Code, art. 1512 and modifies the LEGAL GUARANTEE conditions which are already set forth in the Civil Code at articles 1490 - 1495. The company Guarantees the proper functioning of the supplied products that bear the Jolly Motor S.r.l.. The validity of the Guarantee, unless otherwise agreed to between the parties (*), is for 24 months from the manufacturing date, which is stated on the products themselves, for all of the products included in the current Jolly Motor S.r.l. price list. Only for gearmotors bearing the Jolly Motor S.r.l. trademark, which feature standard electromechanical limit switches (manually operated safety limit switches do not come under this category), the guarantee is 5 years starting from the manufacturing date appearing on the products themselves. The guarantee is subordinated to the respect of the technical specifications and proper state-of-the-art installation, safety and compliance with intended use, all of which is stated in the technical documentation supplied with the products. The guarantee is limited to the repair and replacement of parts which Jolly Motor S.r.l. finds to have flaws, without this involving any extensions of the standing legal guarantee conditions or payment of damages of any kind. The Guarantee does not cover consumer goods, installation activities, maintenance and assembly; for any damage or malfunctioning generated by factors which are external to the product, on existing yet-to-be made installations, or those caused by environmental interference of any nature that exceed the limit values established by law. Also, the Guarantee expires in case of ascertained tampering with or improper use of the product.

Terms of implementation:

Unless otherwise agreed (*), the right to the Guarantee is exercised by showing a copy of the acquired document (i.e. the commercial invoice) to the other party involved. The client must report any flaw to the seller within 30 days of discovering said flaw, and any legal action must be filed within 6 months of discovering the flaw, or the statute of limitations will apply. The shipping costs of parts for which the Guarantee is required must be borne by the client according to what is specified at point 8. The client may not claim any indirect damages, missed profits, production down time, and, may not in any case demand compensatory damages for amounts greater than the value of the supplied component parts or products. Any costs incurred in transporting goods repaired or in need of repair, even if coming under the guarantee, shall be borne by the requesting party. These Guarantee conditions do not in any way cover whatsoever external job order performed by company technical staff. These Guarantee conditions apply to the domestic market and extend across European Union and international territories in which the Vienna convention of 1980 is recognised and applied, when it comes to traded goods.

Any issue arising from the sales agreement, shall come under the jurisdiction of Italian Law, thereby excluding any other jurisdiction and are supplementary to the Vienna convention on the international trade of goods. All disputes shall come under Italian jurisdiction and processed through the Court of Treviso, Italy ().

Court of jurisdiction: (art. 19 Civil proceedings Code) Treviso.

() If any clients are headquartered in a nation state that has not adhered to the Vienna convention, then special agreements () must be entered into concerning the application of said convention or of the law of that nation state. () Specific changes to these Guarantee conditions may be agreed to by the parties in their commercial agreements.

(!) Private consumers are guaranteed for 24 months as of the sale date, as set forth in the regulations of the Consumer Code Legs. Decr. 206/2005 . The sales invoice is binding.

8. RETURNS AND CLAIMS

Management of all claims, whether they are related the quantity or quality of the delivered goods, shall follow this procedure. Prior to sending any returned parts, the client must inform the company's commercial department by mail, preceded by a telephone call. Said mail must enclosed the original sales invoice for the goods and the RETURNED PARTS FORMS (Encl. 1) and the RETURNED PARTS LIST (Encl. 2) completely filled in. A copy of the model attached to these conditions of sale (it can be downloaded from the website or requested via phone from the Commercial department. Returned goods shall then be assessed and authorised by the company, in writing, an given a clearance code for returns. Returned goods shall be received by the company only if said goods are new and complete including their original packaging. The items which are authorised for return must be shipped, by and at the client's cost, exclusively and without deviating from what is stated below:

- document heading: Jolly Motor S.r.l., Viale Caproni 13, 30068 Rovereto (TN) - Italy
- ship goods to: c/o Came Service Italia, Via della Pace 28, 31030 Casier (TV) - Italy

The returned goods must travel with proper travel papers, bearing the written returned goods authorisation from the company, and, the quality and quantity of the returned goods, as well as, the relative packing list, and possible pro forma invoice (for non EU clients). If a pro forma invoice is issued, a copy of this must be sent to the Commercial department which shall have previously approved the returning of the goods. All of the documentation travelling with the goods must be mailed ahead of time to the Commercial department, mentioning the name of the air/sea carrier plus air/sea port of arrival in Italy.

The returned goods shall not receive acceptance-status unless processed in the above mentioned manner. Especially, merely receiving the goods at the company's head offices or warehouses shall not constitute acceptance of returned goods. Any materials that are no longer covered by the guarantee or which are not repairable may be retrieved by the client, at said client's cost, within 30 days maximum, that is, from the date on which the Service department publicises its inspection findings concerning the goods. Once these terms have elapsed the company shall (as provided for in the returned goods request form) see to forwarding all of the material, charging all transport costs to the client.

9. REPAIRS

Client requested repairs to purchased items, whenever possible and economically viable, shall be performed by the company after having agreed on the price. In any case all labour and two-way transport costs shall be borne by the client.

10. RIGHT OF OWNERSHIP

It is expressly agreed that, right of ownership for delivered goods remains with the company until the client pays the entire balance, regardless of who is in possession of said goods. Transport expenses and any other expenses needed to retrieve the equipment, therein including any extraordinary expenses as well as any repeatable ones, shall be borne by the client.

11. PATENTS, TRADEMARKS AND DISTINCTIVE SIGNS

The Client is aware that the products bearing the Jolly Motor S.r.l. trademark are protected by patents and result from know-how and design which are the exclusive property of Came according to Legislative Decree n. 30/2005 (Code of industrial property). The client is expressly prohibited from violating said Jolly Motor S.r.l. rights and in any case from removing, suppressing or in any way altering trademarks or other distinctive signs or logos of any kind from the products, and in the same way it is prohibited to attach new ones of any nature. Thus, it is prohibited to reproduce or use the Jolly Motor S.r.l. trademark in any way or any other distinctive sign appearing of the products, unless expressly agreed to in writing by Came.

12. WINDING-UP CLAUSE

Pursuant to and by effect of art. 1456 of the Civil Code missed or delayed payment, even partial, by the client as per point 6 of the General Conditions of Sale shall result in the winding up performed the agreement, with Jolly Motor S.r.l. retaining the right to file for compensatory damages.

13. PROVISIONS ON THE SAFEGUARDING OF PRIVATE INFORMATION

Pursuant to the legislation en force as concerns the safeguarding of private information, clients are hereby informed that their personal information is stored in the company's records, as should be for the proper performance of the contractual relationship and compliance with certain provisions of law, not to mention statistical, commercial, marketing, promotional, credit protection purposes, as well, as processing and termination of latter. The personal information of the purchasing party are process via automated and paper-based tools by authorised persons, in security conditions designed to guarantee the reserved nature of the information. The personal information of the client may be transmitted to Agencies, companies of the group, credit recovery agencies, namely, companies, consortiums or associations that operate in business, market research and marketing. The company owns the processed information, and the client may turn to the company to exercise their lawful rights. To this end the purchasing party is hereby informed that at any time they may access their own personal information, ask for it to be updated, rectified or cancelled and/or request that they not longer be processed.

All data have been drawn up and verified with the utmost care. We are in no way liable for any errors and/or omissions.
